

Application Development Technician

Responsibilities

Include but are not limited to the following:

- Perform daily testing such as moisture ingress, uptake, and oxygen scavenging testing
- Perform weekly calibration of analytical balances
- Write protocols/ work instructions for innovative projects within the laboratory setting
- Perform experiments according to written protocols/and or experiment request form
- Write technical reports on novel experiments
- Maintain laboratory notebook with proper lab documentation
- Operate analytical equipment for manufacturing support and/or applications development support
- Responsible for maintaining cleanliness of lab work area and properly storing equipment
- Assist program management with projects as needed
- Perform any other tests when required

Qualifications/Education/Special Skills

- High school diploma or Bachelor's degree in science related field
- Excellent communication and verbal skills
- Experience with basic lab testing equipment, including analytical balance
- Strong writing, organization, problem-solving, presentation skills

Schedule: M-F 8am-5pm

Pay: Starting at $14.75