

Machine Operator - VIM

Job Description

Primary Responsibilities:

- Understands and performs line clearance, ensures product is available and ready to convert to keep the line running.
- Performs and documents all activities, including product brought into the room, product converted through and packaged on the line, and any scrap generated
- Fully complete required documentation for all activities performed
- Packages, labels, and stacks materials according to requirements or work instructions
- Maintains a clean and orderly work environment
- Assist in other areas as needed
- Maintain company and customer quality standards while maximizing product conversion time.

Qualifications/Skills:

- Experience in manufacturing preferred
- Experience in a job requiring excellent attention to detail is ideal
- Able to lift 50lbs.
- Able to operate and maneuver a hand truck
- Basic personal computer skills preferred
- Basic problem solving skills
- High School Diploma/GED required

Job Type: Full-time

Pay: $11.75 per hour