

Night Shift Operator

Responsibilities

Include but are not limited to the following:

- Packaging finished goods into bags, boxes, and palletizing
- Stocking raw materials and packaging supplies
- Performing various actions to maximize equipment uptime (clearing line jams, stopping/restarting conveyor, etc.)
- Notifying Cell Leader, Maintenance, etc. of any equipment or quality issues
- Completing required paperwork with cGMP Best Practices
- When necessary (breakouts, callouts, etc.), performing relevant Quality Technician functions

Qualifications/Education/Special Skills

- High School Diploma or GED required
- Experience in a production environment preferred
- Ability to repeatedly lift up to 30lbs (~120times/shift)
- Ability to stand/walk for prolonged periods of time (12hour shifts)
- Excellent Verbal and Written Communication Skills
- Proficient in Math and Reading
- Basic computer-use skills
- Ability to obtain forklift and other powered industrial vehicle license(s)
- High sense of Ownership, Responsibility, and Initiative/Ability to work autonomously