

Quality Control Manager

Job Description

Responsibilities include but are not limited to the following:

- Live and promote the Aptar Core Values.
- Write procedures for new processes as well as revise and write new procedures for processes already in place.
- Collaborate with Operations, Applications Development and Quality to meet project requirements and timelines.
- Perform research projects to assist in improvements of Aptar CSP Technologies and its product lines.
- Perform statistical analysis on product data when required.
- Work with pertinent departments in developing and documenting new specifications, procedures and work instructions according to the Quality Management System.
- Work with Quality management to develop and set up any new testing that needs to be conducted per contract review.
- Lead and coordinate projects to support and promote quality and productivity at Aptar CSP Technologies with a particular focus on areas directly under the purview of this position:
  - Incoming and Receiving Lab
  - Raw Material Control
  - Finished Production Testing Lab (work flow and test optimization)
  - Employee Development
  - Plan, develop, and supervise the collection and testing of samples for Process Validations.
  - Support internal customers through information sharing, research and special projects.
  - Participate in FMEA's and Design of Experiments related to current and/or new products.

Qualifications/Education/Specialized Skills:

- Minimum Bachelors in Engineering Field or other field with related work experience.
- Six Sigma Green Belt or Black Belt preferred or capable of achieving Black Belt certification
- Proficiency in use of statistical, analytical tools
- Proficiency in the use of FMEA's and Design of Experiments preferred
- Proficient in Microsoft Suite Applications

Job Type: Full-time

Pay: $55,000.00 - $65,000.00 per year